What is CIS? It's ALL About Trust

City of LaGrande Police

Since 1981 CIS (Citycounty Insurance Services) has been the trusted provider of coverage for Oregon's cities and counties. Member-owned and governed, CIS is available only to members of the League of Oregon Cities and the Association of Oregon Counties. The CIS Board of Trustees administers three trusts that protect members' pooled funds:

- CIS Property/Casualty Trust – offering property, liability, auto and workers' compensation coverage
- Employee Benefits Trust (EBS) – offering employee benefit coverage to city employees
- Association of Oregon Counties Insurance Trust (AOCIT) - offering employee benefit coverage to county employees

Member Owned, Member Governed

CIS is owned, governed and managed by our members. We work together in true partnership to reduce risks and to help our members' employees to be safer and healthier. Our experienced staff knows Oregon and they know the issues faced in different regions of the state. Working alongside administrators and elected officials, we proudly offer a number of programs and services to help protect the health of our members' financial and human resources.

Meeting YOUR needs

CIS offers supportive service, responsive care and superior coverage – designed to meet the specific needs of your entity. Employee Benefits – offering a full range of employee benefits as well as workplace wellness programs, assistance for employee meetings, strategic planning, and assistance with federal/state healthcare reform.

- Risk Management – helping to reduce or avoid costly claims through education, training, on-site services and consultation.

- Claims Management – working to achieve the best outcome for your entity in workers' compensation, property, liability and auto claims.
- Specialized Consultants – Pre-loss attorneys and other consultants are available to assist with more complex situations.
- Tools and Resources –The CIS website offers tools and resources.

The Power of Belonging

CIS represents 98% of the cities in Oregon and 78% of the counties – and those members understand the power of belonging to CIS. In the past two years our long term members have shared nearly $10 million dollars in distribution credit, real credits that help reduce costs. CIS also provides:

- The best coverage/plans at the best rates
- All available lines of coverage to all eligible entities
- Fair pricing, based on industry standards, expected losses and program expenses
- Recognition for positive loss experience, assistance to improve negative experience
- A constant presence, providing risk financing and risk management in good times and bad
- Friendly, knowledgeable staff with a great reputation for excellent customer service.

Working together with CIS our members are stronger, more effective, safer and healthier.
