

What TRUST means to us:

THOUGHTFUL:

We approach every action at CIS recognizing that we are accountable to the Trust, to our Members, to our teams, and to ourselves. We listen to our Members, and try to view each issue through their eyes. We make decisions and recommendations based on all of the pertinent information we can gather. We consider the impacts of our decisions on both the individual member and the Trust as a whole.

RESOURCEFUL:

We use our creativity and our expertise to produce the best outcome for Members, within our fiduciary responsibility to the Trust. We are innovative and enterprising in our service, drawing on the resources inside and outside of CIS, seeking opportunities for continued learning, and developing networks to gather the information and resources needed to best serve our stakeholders and each other.

UNPARALLELED:

We know there are other providers of the services CIS offers, but none as committed to excellence; to providing comprehensive coverage and services that meet the unique needs of Members; and to being a strong, stable, long-term source of risk management and risk financing for Oregon cities and counties.

STEWARDSHIP:

We recognize that we are stewards of the financial resources that our Members have entrusted to us, and are prudent in the use of those resources. We are committed to the protection of our own, and our Members' assets.

TEAM:

We bring a positive spirit to our work, and celebrate our diversity. Each of us has a unique leadership role at CIS, and we take personal responsibility for its fulfillment. At the same time, we are generous in our support of each other, and willingly share our knowledge and skills so that Members get the best our teams have to offer. We are thankful for the opportunity we have to serve the people of Oregon.
